

Contributors

N. Pearl Blose is a University of KwaZulu-Natal student. She is an accredited service provider, working with Sector Education & Training Authorities (SETAs). She is the founder and owner of WANDYB Solutions - skills development company. She provides psycho-educational support, facilitation, coaching and mentoring to students. She holds a Master's Degree - MEd in Educational Psychology (UKZN), HBEd in Psycho-Educational Support (UNISA), BA – Education and Psychology (UNISA) and a Secondary Teachers' Diploma – STD (UNITRA). She is a member of the Golden Key Society and World Education Research Association (WERA). Her research interest is in cognition and human intelligence.

Email: ncane.blose@yahoo.co.za

ORCID iD: <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-0843-7277>

Prof. Owence Chabaya is a Professor of Education and Acting Director Centre for Academic Excellence at University of Limpopo. She is an experienced educator, lecturer and researcher who has worked for years as a classroom practitioner, a Principal Lecturer at a Teachers' College and a University Lecturer as well as a professional development practitioner at various institutions. She is well versed with the theory and practice of curriculum planning, implementation, as well as theories of teaching and learning and assessment. She has published more than thirty (30) papers in peer-reviewed and accredited scientific journals, 2 books and 5 book chapters to date.

Email: chabaya@ul.ac.za

ORCID iD: <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-2051-9064>

Dr. Takunda Chirau is a Monitoring and Evaluation Technical Specialist at the Centre for Learning on Evaluation and Results Anglophone Africa in the Commerce, Law and Management Department at the University of the Witwatersrand. He is an experienced Monitoring and Evaluation Technical Specialist with experience in Monitoring and Evaluation Capacity Strengthening/Development; Research and Learning within English Speaking African countries. He has published several articles in accredited journals in the area of gender, livelihoods, monitoring and evaluation. He is a current board member of South Africa Monitoring and Evaluation and Evaluation Association.

Email: takunda.chirau@wits.ac.za

ORCID iD: <https://orcid.org/0001-8506-7359>

Dr. Bekithemba Dube is a senior lecturer and head of foundation and intermediate phase at the University of the Free State. His areas of research include rural education, religion, education and politics in African post-colonial states.

Email: DubeB@ufs.ac.za

ORCID iD: <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-4327-7838>

Dr. Mbusiseni Celimpilo Dube is a lecturer at the University of Zululand. He obtained his PhD in 2019 and has research interest in History and Social Sciences Education. He has contributed few publications on mentoring of preservice teachers as well as the teaching of History. He has co-supervised Masters candidates to completion. He has also reviewed articles for few accredited journals and examined few Masters studies. He has presented papers in both national and international conferences.

Email: DubeMC@unizulu.ac.za; dube.mpilo@yahoo.com

ORCID iD: <https://orcid.org/0000-0001-9451-0455>

Dr. Blanche Ntombizodwa Hadebe-Ndlovu is a lecturer at the University of the Free State. She holds a Junior Primary Teachers Diploma (Mpumalanga College of Education), Higher Diploma in Education (Natal), Bachelor of Arts (University of Zululand), Higher Diploma in Education (University of Natal), Bachelor of Education (KwaZulu-Natal), Masters in Education (University of KwaZulu-Natal) and Ph.D. (University of KwaZulu-Natal) her research interest is in teacher education. She has presented papers in conferences both nationally and internationally. She has published papers in the field of Early Childhood Education field. She contributed to the Project for Inclusive Early Childhood Care and Education (PIECCE) project and was part of the team that contributed to the Early Childhood Care Education program.

Email: ndlovubl@ukzn.ac.za; blanchendlovu@gmail.com.

ORCID iD: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-3506-7382>

Contributors

Prof. Dipane Hlalele (PhD) is an Associate Professor in the School of Education at the University of KwaZulu-Natal. His research interests include sustainable rural learning ecologies, community engagement in rural contexts and inclusive education.

Email: hlaleled@ukzn.ac.za

ORCID iD: <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-4455-4876>

Dr. Samukelisiwe Khumalo, PhD, is a senior lecturer in Curriculum Studies Discipline at the University of KwaZulu-Natal and Academic Leader for Teaching and Learning in the School of Education. She completed her undergraduate degree at the University of Zululand and earned her PhD at the University of KwaZulu-Natal. Her research interests lie in rurality, and in success, throughput, and academic support in higher education, along with multigrade teaching. She attended both primary and secondary school in a rural area where she grew up. She taught Biology and AS biology in South African secondary schools and in United Kingdom.

Email: KhumaloS13@ukzn.ac.za

ORCID iD: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-1568-2652>

Dr. Nhlanhla Landa is a Senior Lecturer at the University of Fort Hare in South Africa. His research interests include multilingualism, language and politics, higher education reform, gender justice, as well as onomastics. He has published vastly on these and other Sociolinguistic subjects in the past few years. Dr Landa teaches courses in Applied Linguistics within the Faculty of Social Sciences and Humanities.

Email: nlanda@ufh.ac.za

ORCID iD: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-4267-8456>

Prof. Sechaba Mahlomaholo is a Professor of Education at the University of Mpumalanga. His area of research lies in the creation of sustainable learning environment in terms of teaching, learning curriculum and governance. Theoretically he experiments with all the eight moments of a bricolage from the traditional to the fractured futures to bring to light deeper understanding of the educational phenomenon in a multiperspectival and multilayered manner. He is a graduate of the Universities of the North, Western Cape and Harvard and has guested 9 accredited Education journals nationally and continentally.

Email: Geoffrey.Mahlomaholo@ump.ac.za

ORCID iD: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-6811-1626>

Prof. Macalane Junel Malindi (PhD) is an Associate Professor in the School of Psychosocial Education at North-West University. His study field is educational psychology, that includes learner support and inclusive education. His research focuses on the resilience of children. He has published articles in peer reviewed journals and contributed chapters in edited books. He supervises honours, Masters and Doctoral students. He has reviewed manuscripts for national and international journals. He has participated in funded national and international research projects. He was a Guest Editor with two colleagues for the Alternation Journal. He serves on the editorial board of an international journal.

Email: Macalane.Malindi@nwu.ac.za

ORCID iD: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-6378-0265>

Ms. L.A. Molahlehi is a former primary school teacher and member of a school management team. She is currently serving in the subject advisory services in the education department in the Free State Province of South Africa. She holds a Master of Education degree from North-West University. Her research field is educational psychology. She has a keen interest in learners who are at risk of poor developmental outcomes due to constellations of personal and contextual risks or barriers. In her Master of Education study, she focused on the resilience of school-going learners who were also involved in streetism to supplement family income. She intends to continue studying the resilience of these learners in her doctoral studies.

Email: dineomolahlehi@gmail.com

ORCID iD: <https://orcid.org/0003-0568-407X>

Dr. Tshele Moloi is a Senior Lecturer in Mathematics Education – Faculty of Education at North West University-Potchefstroom Campus. He is part of the supervisory team in Sustainable Rural learning Ecologies and learning Environments, supervising postgraduate students specialising in Mathematics Education. He has published various articles in mathematics Education curriculum, ethnomathematics, and contextualisation of Mathematics.

Email: tshelej@gmail.com; 37591363@g.nwu.ac.za; 37591363@nwu.ac.za

ORCID iD: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-3533-2852>

Contributors

Dr. Moeketsi Mosia is a director for Centre for Teaching, Learning and Programme Development at Sol Plaatje University. He has published various articles in the area of statistical modelling and student learning in higher education.

Email: Moeketsi.Mosia@spu.ac.za

ORCID iD: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-7189-0018>

Prof. M.M. Nkoane, is currently a research specialist in the Department of Educational Psychology and Special Education. He is also the Deputy Dean: Research and Internationalisation in the Faculty of Education. He has an experience that range for 23 years in Higher Education.

Email: nkoaneMM@unizulu.ac.za

ORCID iD: <https://orcid.org/0000-00030759-9091>

Dr. Bunmi Isaiah Omodan is a lecturer at the University of the Free State, South Africa. A certified human resource manager with PhD in Education Management and Leadership, Managing Editor of “Journal of Education Research and Rural Community Development”, the coordinator and founder of Education Research and Rural Community Development Forum. He is currently a member of British Education Leadership, Management and Administration Society (BELMAS), Nigerian Association for Educational Administration and Planning (NAEAP) and Commonwealth Council for Educational Administration and Management (CCEAM). His research focus includes but not limited decoloniality and Africanised pedagogy, social crisis management and University Transformation.

Email: omodanbunmi@gmail.com; OmodanBI@ufs.ac.za

ORCID iD: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-9093-3108>

Dr. Makeresemese Rosy Qhosola has a PhD in Curriculum Studies wherein she advances boundaries of knowledge around what is termed critical accounting education. This was a ground breaking study that ushered her focus in research work in academia. To date, as a curriculum specialist she uses transformation as the backdrop against which she paints the transpestry of her research that has taken her to even greater heights of the Fourth Industrial Revolution with its attended concepts of adaptive learning, blockchaining, use of sensors and sophisticated mathematical algorithms.

Email: QhosolaM@unizulu.ac.za

ORCID iD: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-0543-1948>

Dr. Benjamin Shongwe is a PhD Graduate (Mathematics Education) at the University of KwaZulu-Natal (2019). Research interests are in Euclidean proof, Mathematical argumentation, Visualization, Gender equity, and Quantitative research. Published 2 articles in the past 10 months. Presented papers at AMESA, SURLEC, ISTE, and SAARMSTE.

Email: shongweb@ukzn.ac.za

ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0000-0001-8083-6462>

Ms. Kelello Alicia Rakolobe is a lecturer in the Department of Educational Foundations at the National University of Lesotho. She is also a PhD candidate at the University of Free State in the Department of Education Policy Studies at the University of Free State. Her research interests lie in education policy and children's rights in education.

Email: 2009070539@ufs4life.ac.za

ORCID iD: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-4852-7587>

Dr. Kevin Teise is a senior lecturer in the School of Education, Sol Plaatje University, where he is teaching undergraduate students. He holds a PhD in Education Policy Studies from the University of the Free State, where he is also involved in the supervision of Masters and PhD-students. The focus of his thesis was on Education for Sustainable Development in South Africa. Dr. Teise has articles published in various peer-reviewed journals, he has delivered papers at various international conferences and has co-authored various book chapters. His research interest is in social justice with a specific focus on Restorative Discipline and Culturally Responsive Education. 0000-0002-5861-1969.

Email: kevin.teise@spu.ac.za

ORCID iD: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-5861-1969>

Dr. Precious Tirivanhu is Research Fellow at Human Sciences Research Council in the Department of Developmental, Capable and Ethical State. He is an experienced researcher in the area of agriculture, community engagement, systems thinking, realist assessments, indigenous knowledge systems amongst others. He has published several articles in accredited journal articles and co-authored several book chapters. He seasonally engages in academic citizenship through examining masters and doctoral student's thesis from across South African universities.

Contributors

Email: ptirivanhu@hsrc.ac.za

ORCID iD: <https://orcid.org/0001-6486-1684>

Dr. Maria Tsakeni is a senior lecturer in the School of Mathematics, Natural Sciences and Technology Education at the University of the Free State. Her research interests lie in innovations in science education which include inquiry-based practical work and education for sustainable development; and school improvement through science and mathematics.

Email: tsakenim@ufs.ac.za/ mtsakeni@gmail.com

ORCID iD: <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-3208-1362>

Prof. Baba Tshotsho teaches Applied Linguistics in the English Language and Comparative Literature Department. Her research is in Applied Linguistics; Language Interface, English as a Second Language and Multilingualism. She is currently interested in translanguaging.

Email: Btshotsho@ufh.ac.za

ORCID iD: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-4542-1752>

Dr. Cias Tsotetsi is a Senior Lecturer and the Assistant Dean in the Faculty of Education on the Qwaqwa Campus of the University of the Free State. He joined this university in 2010 and has published papers on teacher development and Participatory Action Research methodologies. The Scholarship of Teaching and Learning as well as the Research Committees, have given him awards for his research and academic scholastic performance. He is a member of various committees such as the Faculty of Education Academic Advisory Board and the Committee for Title Registration. He has been participating in partnerships, NRF funded projects.

Email: TsotetsiCT@ufs.ac.za

ORCID iD: <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-1035-3339>

Dr. Sindiso Zhou is a Senior Lecturer teaching Applied Linguistics in the Department of English at the University of Fort Hare in South Africa. She does research in the fields of language contact, language pedagogy, multilingualism, multilingual writing, translanguaging, higher education, onomastics, and interconnections of discourses of gender and communication in society.

Email: szhou@ufh.ac.za

ORCID iD: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-0037-0218>