

Contributors

Joseph Kofi Antwi

Joseph is a PhD candidate in Religious Studies at the Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology. He is an Ordained Minister of the Presbyterian Church of Ghana. His research interests are Indigenous Knowledge in African Culture, Eco-theology, Christian Education, and African Philosophy. Currently, he is the Public Relations Officer of the Presbyterian University College, Ghana. Contact details: kofiantwi69@presbyuniversity.edu.gh; antwi69@yahoo.co.uk

Elijah Magezi Baloyi teaches practical theology at the University of South Africa (UNISA). He has published several articles and two books. Prof Elijah's research focus area is pastoral counselling, marriage, premarital and gender imbalances in an African context. Contact details: baloye@unisa.ac.za

Sinenhlanhla Chisale is a research fellow at University of South Africa, Archie Mafeje Research Institute, College of Graduate Studies. Research interests include Gender and Sexuality; Gender based violence and Patriarchy, Church and Social Transformation Ubuntu, Religion and HIV-AIDS, Disability. University of South Africa (UNISA) - Institute for Gender Studies, Contact details: sinengwenya@gmail.com; sinengwenya@yahoo.co.uk

Norman Chivasa holds a PhD and Masters in Conflict Resolution and Peace Studies from the University of KwaZulu-Natal, Durban, South Africa. He is a Post-Doctoral Research Fellow at the University of KwaZulu-Natal in the college of Law and Management Studies. He is adjunct lecturer at the Zimbabwe Open University where he teaches Peace Studies courses. Dr. Chivasa is interested in community-based peacebuilding initiatives, informal infrastructures for peace and development. He has facilitated the creation of a ward-level peace committee and five village peace committees in ward 8 of

Contributors

Seke district, Mashonaland east province, Zimbabwe. Contact details: normanchivasa@gmail.com

S,H,C,J, Chika Eze is a member of the Society of the Holy Child Jesus, an international religious congregation of women in the Catholic Church. She holds a PhD of Psychology from the University of KwaZulu-Natal, where she did a two years postdoctoral studies as well in the College of Humanities, School of Psychology. Presently, she is a Counselling Psychology Lecturer at the different constituent colleges of the Catholic University of Eastern Africa, Nairobi-Kenya. Her research interest focuses on culture, gender, education and development. She has published extensively in these areas in peer-reviewed journals such as Journal of Psychology in Africa, International Journal of Social Science Studies, and Cogent Social Sciences etc. Contact details: chikashcj@gmail.com

Roderick Hewitt lectures in Systematic and Practical Theology in School of Religion Philosophy and Classics, University of KwaZulu-Natal. His research interests are in ecumenical theology and Rastafarianism. Contact details: Hewitt@ukzn.ac.za

Chammah J. Kaunda is a Zambian by nationality. He works in the Department of Christian Spirituality, Church History and Missiology at the University of South Africa, Pretoria. Kaunda has a vast interest in a variety of theological issues especial from a Pentecostal perspective. He has made some publications in the intersection between African religion and Christianity, African Pentecostalism, Missiology, and ecumenical theology, to mention just a few. Contact details: pastorchammah@gmail.com

Gyaviira Kisitu is from Uganda, a PhD candidate at the University of KwaZulu-Natal in the school of systematic theology. His research interest is African sexualities and gender and African religions. Contact details: kitudavis@yahoo.com Nhlanhla Landa is a Post-Doctoral Research Fellow at the University of Fort Hare. He holds a PhD in Applied Linguistics from the University of Fort Hare. His research interests are in sociolinguistics and applied communication. Contacts details: nlanda@ufh.ac.za.

landamasuku@gmail.com

The LUCSA Research Team (NGO)

Rev. Nkosinathi Muyambo (Research Fellow, ELCZ-WD Manama Mission) nkosilsu@gmail.com

Mr. Mphendulwa Moyo (Thusanang Programme Officer)

Mr. Gift Dube (Thusanang Programme Officer)

Mr. Dennis Muleya (Thusanang Programme Officer)

Miss Sibikwaphi Ndlovu (Thusanang Officer)

Mr. Urethabisitse Mathe (Thusanang Programme Coordinator)
matheurethabisitse@gmail.com

Rev. Dr. P. Knutson (LUCSA Christian Education Desk)
philip.knutson@elca.org

Mrs. V Mzezewa (LUCSA HIV & AIDS Desk Coordinator)
hivaidscordinator@lucsa.org

Ms. Busisiwe B. Dube (LUCSA HIV & AIDS Programme Officer)
hivaidsofficer1@lucsa.org

Francis Machingura is an Associate Professor (Biblical Studies) at the University of Zimbabwe, Curriculum and Arts Education Department, Faculty of Education. He is a specialist in Biblical Studies. His areas of special interest are on the: Interaction of the Bible and Gender, Bible and Politics, Bible and Health, Bible and Inclusivity, Bible and Sexuality, Music and Pentecostal Christianity in Africa. He has published a book, several articles and book chapters. Contact details: fmachingura@yahoo.com

Lekganyane Robert Maditobane is a PhD candidate at the University of South Africa (UNISA). Contact details: lekgamr@unisa.ac.za

Sana K. Mmolai is a senior lecturer of Religious Education in the Department of Languages and Social Sciences Education, University of Botswana. She obtained her first degree and her Post Graduate Diploma in Education from the University of Botswana, followed by a Master's degree and PhD in Religious Education from Lancaster University. She has taught for 30 years at the University of Botswana. Her publications in HIV and AIDS include 2 co-edited books, 2 book chapters, 7 articles and 1 Conference Paper. She has participated in numerous workshops, seminars, conferences and consultancy projects on HIV and AIDS in Botswana. Contacts details: mmolaisk@mopipi.ub.bw

Contributors

Elizabeth Pulane Motswapong is a Lecturer in World Religions with a Concentration in Hindu Studies at the University of Botswana. She holds a MA in African and Indian Religions from SOAS (University of London) and a Ph.D in Religious Studies (Hindu Studies) from University of Kent. Motswapong interest lies in Comparative religions, Queers studies, Gender Studies and HIV and Aids where she has published extensively in the three areas. Her publications include among others (2016) Sita as a Text of Terror: A Motswana Woman's Impressions. In Ross, R and Amenga-Etego R. (eds.) (2015) Unraveling and Reweaving Sacred Canon in Africana Womanhood. Lexington . USA. Vashti and Sita: Daring Sister we could. (2015) trust@<https://www.degruyter.com/downloadpdf/j/genst.2015.14.issue-1/genst-2016-0006/genst-2016-0006.xml>. (2010) 'A Super Gift or a Conduit: The Place of the Daughter in the Indian Marriage Exchange': Nidan International Journal for Study of Hinduism, Vol 22: 82-96. (2009) 'Lesbians and Gays in Botswana: Surviving behind the Mask'. In Scherer, B. (ed.): Queer Paradigms. Peter Lang Printing and Publishing, Germany. Contacts details: motswaponge@mopipi.ub.bw

Herbert Moyo teaches Practical Theology and Ministerial Studies at University of KwaZulu-Natal, School of Religion, Philosophy and Classics. His research interests are in the investigation of the possible pastoral role of the church in particular and religion in general in responding to some socio-economic, religious and political developments in given contexts. Moyo believes that religion should always respond to human experiences pastoral. Non action by the church, according to Moyo implies the absence of God. He has published and presented papers in the area of pastoral care, pastoral counselling, healing, church and state, the role of religion in society and pastoral liturgies of African Initiated Churches. Contact details: moyoh@ukzn.ac.za

Martin Mujinga (SMMS and UKZN) is an Ordained Minister of the Methodist Church in Zimbabwe and is currently a Third Year PhD Candidate at University of KwaZulu Natal. He is studying in the area of Systematic Theology. He also an Adjunct Lecturer at Seth Mokitimi Methodist Seminary, and a Graduate Teaching Assistant at the UKZN. His research interest is in the healing ministry. Contact details: martinmujinga@gmail.com

Beatrice Okyere-Manu is a Lecturer in Applied Ethics in the School of Religion, Philosophy and Classics at the University of KwaZulu-Natal. She the programme director for Applied Ethics. is a member of the Circle of Concerned African Women Theologians, Theological Society of South Africa, CHART. Her research interests cover the following areas: HIV and AIDS, Applied Ethics: Ethical issues Affecting African Women, Indigenous Knowledge in African Culture, Environmental Ethics. Contact details: okyere-manv@ukzn.ac.za

Nomatter Sande (Living Waters Theological Seminary) is a PhD Candidate at the University of KwaZulu-Natal in Human Science and Social Transformation. His research interests include; understanding the plight and space of marginalised groups in society, religious violence, peace and reconciliation. More specifically, examining how spirituality engages, shapes and influences human rights, good governance and leadership. Contact details: pastornomsande@yahoo.com

Lilian Cheelo Siwila is a lecturer in the School of Religion, Philosophy and Classics. She is currently the Programme leader for Systematic Theology. She has worked with a number of Theological and ecumenical bodies in the field of Gender, Theology and Culture holding various offices. She is a member of the Circle of Concerned African Women Theologians, CHART, Ujamaa and AARS. Her research interests include Gender and Culture, Sexual and reproductive health and its interface with Theology and social and economic trends in contemporary theologies. Contact details: Siwila@ukzn.ac.za

Fairchild Siyawamwaya teaches at the Ezekiel Guti University in Zimbabwe. Contacts details: siyawamwayafairchild@yahoo.com

Muyambo Tenson (Ezekiel Guti University) is a lecturer at Zimbabwe Ezekiel Guti University, Faculty of Arts. His research interests are in Indigenous Knowledge Systems (IKS) especially of minority ethnic groups that are often politically, socially, economically and religio-culturally marginalised. He has published some articles in this regard examining those African indigenous beliefs and practices that are fast losing their efficacy in a globalised world yet are useful in every day existential human challenges.

Contributors

Muyambo is a PhD student with University of KwaZulu-Natal. Email address: tmabhuyamuyambo@gmail.com

Sindiso Zhou is with the Faculty of Social Sciences and Humanities at the University of Fort Hare. She holds a PhD in Applied Linguistics from the University of Fort Hare. Her research focuses on language contact and communication. Contact details: sindisolorraine@gmail.com

Isabella Nothando Zhou is a Safety Health and Environmental Management student at Bindura University of Science Education. She is involved in several health communication research projects in Zimbabwe. Contact details: zhouisabellan@gmail.com