

Contributors

Felicia CLEMENT is a Graduate student in the Master of Arts in Global Governance program at the Balsillie School of International Affairs in Waterloo, Ontario, Canada. She previously received her Bachelor of Arts in Global Studies and Anthropology with high distinction from Wilfrid Laurier University. Felicia's current research interests include global justice and human rights, community development, human security and migration. Felicia's primary research at Balsillie focuses on the concept of trust between refugees and Canadian citizens and institutions.

fclement@balsillieschool.ca; <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-0315-6820>

Ashwin DESAI is Professor of Sociology at the University of Johannesburg. His latest book is entitled Wentworth: The Beautiful Game and the Making of Place (UKZN Press). ashdesai1@gmail.com; <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-4091-7449>

Vaneshree GOVENDER is the Manager (Acting) of the Research and Postgraduate Support Directorate at the Durban University of Technology. Her area of interest includes research and innovation management, postgraduate research, and research capacity development.

vanesh@dut.ac.za; <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-0756-424X>

Nokukhanya N. JILI is a Senior Lecturer and Acting Head of Department in the Department of Public Administration within the Faculty of Commerce, Administration and Law at the University of Zululand. Her areas of research include Local Economic Development, Public Policy, and Governance. She has published numerous articles in accredited journals, and has supervised masters and PhD students.

JiliN@unizulu.ac.za; <https://orcid.org/0000-0001-7785-9583>

Erna KRUGER is Director of an NPO called Mahlathini Development

Foundation. The organisation focuses on agricultural innovation systems development and helping the rural poor improve their livelihoods and natural resources management. An ongoing focus is the development of climate resilient agriculture practices for improved productivity and resilience. info@mahlathini.org; <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-1250-5922>

Ajiv MAHARAJ holds a Master's Degree in Urban Planning and a PhD in Economic Geography. He is currently Deputy Head of the Economic Development and Investment Promotion Unit at the eThekweni Municipality, where he is responsible for research, policy, strategy and innovation. He has developed numerous strategies, articles and book chapters including the city's economic development strategy, economic outlook papers, port planning and tourism articles. He has presented at numerous conferences on thematic areas relating to economic risk, city economy diagnostics as well as port planning and benchmarking. Ajiv.Maharaj@durban.gov.za; <https://orcid.org/0000-0001-6798-057>

Desiree MANICOM is a Senior Lecturer in the Policy and Development Studies Programme in the School of Social Sciences (SSS), at UKZN. She is also the Academic Leader for Community Engagement in SSS. Her research interests are social justice, civil society and policy, gender and labour policy, labour policy and state social security policy Manicom@ukzn.ac.za; <https://orcid.org/0000-0001-8458-2455>

Evangelos A. MANTZARIS is a Researcher currently based at Mangosuthu University of Technology. He completed an Honours in Political Science, Economics and Sociology with distinction at Panteios University, Athens. He completed a Masters in Sociology and a PhD. at the University of Cape Town, in South Africa. He has published 8 full scale books in English and Greek, 32 peer-reviewed chapters in books, 70 SAPSE journal articles, 12 peer-reviewed International Conference Proceedings, and has presented papers in over 70 national and international conferences. Mantzaris.Evangelos@mut.ac.za; <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-0490-6953>

John MODISE is a Senior Officer in the South African Police Service, and a PhD Candidate at Nelson Mandela University.

Contributors

johnmodise3@gmail.com; <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-2350-0695>

Cheryl N. MOHAMED SAYEED is a Senior Lecturer: Public Policy at the University of KwaZulu Natal. Her academic and research experience spans over 20+ years with key specialisation in Public Policy and Public Governance. Mohamed-sayeedc@ukzn.ac.za; <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-9548-1139>

Zwelinzima NDEVU is the Director at the School of Public Leadership (SPL) at Stellenbosch University, South Africa. He has published peer-reviewed chapters in books, accredited journal articles and peer-reviewed national and international conference proceedings. zwelinzima@spl.sun.ac.za; <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-2991-8424>

Bethuel S. NGCAMU holds two PhDs in Education and Public Management. He started his career as a geography teacher in a secondary school and joined the eThekweni Municipality as a Consultant to the City Manager on Research and a Management Advisor where he managed a myriad of projects and conducted change management interventions. He has published 39 peer-reviewed journal articles, three book chapters and seven-peer reviewed conference papers. He has won various best researcher awards at different universities. bethuel.ngcamuza@mandela.ac.za; <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-1507-7583>

Thokozani Ian NZIMAKWE holds a doctoral degree in Public Administration and Management, and is currently an academic in the School of Management, IT and Governance at the University of KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa. He was employed in the public service for 14 years before joining academia. His research interests are in the areas of local governance, public sector accountability, ICT and public sector reforms. He has published widely in scholarly journals, contributed various book chapters, and has attended and delivered papers at both national and international conferences. Nzimakweth@ukzn.ac.za; <https://orcid.org/0000-0001-5817-9910>

Kunle OPARINDE is a Research Associate at the Durban University of Technology. He is an interdisciplinary researcher and he publishes in the areas of discourse analysis, sociolinguistics, decolonization and research management. KunleO@dut.ac.za; <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-2387-1258>

Fazlyn PETERSEN is currently an Information Systems Lecturer at the University of the Western Cape. She believes in the practical application of theoretical knowledge to improve workplace integration and performance. Students are exposed to entrepreneurship and need to apply their knowledge to solve community challenges. Fazlyn's research interests include ICT for development in health and education, entrepreneurship and developing innovative teaching pedagogies to improve student learning experiences. fapetersen@uwc.ac.za; <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-4592-2861>

Pregala PILLAY has enjoyed a versatile academic career for over two decades. She currently serves as the Vice Dean: Social Impact and Transformation in the Faculty of Economic and Management Sciences, and Professor in the School of Public Leadership and Director of the Anti-Corruption Centre for Education and Research at Stellenbosch University. She co-leads the Working Group on Ethics and Culture in the Public Sector for the International Association of Schools and Institutes of Administration. She was a Visiting Professor at KU Leuven University. pregala.pillay@spl.sun.ac.za; <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-2101-962X>

Kishore RAGA is a retired Professor and Research Associate at Nelson Mandela University. He is also a Regional Mentor– EC for the NIHSS since 2015. Kishore also serves as a postgraduate supervisor for University of Pretoria and UNISA. Kishore.Raga@mandela.ac.za; <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-1548-2079>

Purshottama REDDY is a Senior Professor and subnational governance specialist in the School of Management, IT and Governance at the University of KwaZulu Natal, in Durban, South Africa. He is currently the Vice – President: Programmes, and member of the Board of Management of the International Association of Schools and Institutes of Administration (IASIA) (Brussels). In 2014, he received the Donald Stone Award for being “A Distinguished International Scholar/Practitioner” and for his “Contribution Towards Advancing the Wellbeing of IASIA”. Prof Reddy is also currently the Chairperson of the Policy and Programme Committee of the International Institute of Administrative Sciences (IIAS) (Brussels). Reddyp1@ukzn.ac.za; <https://orcid.org/0000-0001-9237-6272>

Contributors

Lee SWALES is a consultant attorney and senior law lecturer at the School of Law, University of KwaZulu-Natal. He holds a Master of Laws (LLM) degree from the University of the Witwatersrand, and a Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) degree from the University of Cape Town. He was admitted as an attorney of the High Court in 2009 after completing articles of clerkship at Webber Wentzel. Lee is a subject specialist in cyber law, contract law, the law of evidence, and all aspects of law and technology. Lee also facilitates lectures for the South African Judicial Education Institute and for the Law Society of South Africa. His current research interests include the legal implications attached to the use of artificial intelligence, and assisting the National Prosecuting Authority with development of training material for prosecutors.

swalesl@ukzn.ac.za; <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-4030-1874>

Derek TAYLOR is a Professor and Researcher of the Nelson Mandela University. He has published extensively in the area of Public Management and Administration. Derek.Taylor@mandela.ac.za; <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-2524-0559>

Alan WHITESIDE is the Chair in Global Health Policy at the Balsillie School of International Affairs and Wilfrid Laurier University in Waterloo, Ontario. Prior to this he was Director and Professor, Health Economics and HIV/AIDS Research Division (HEARD) at the University of KwaZulu-Natal, Durban, where he is a Professor Emeritus. He worked for the British Department for International Development as a Senior Research Fellow from 2009 to 2012. He has been involved in researching HIV/AIDS for over twenty years. He is the author and co-author of numerous books and articles. In 2015 he was appointed as an Officer of the Order of the British Empire. awhiteside@balsillieschool.ca; <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-1157-968X>

Sibusiso L. XABA is currently a PhD candidate in Public Policy at the University of KwaZulu-Natal. He is a Chief Policy Analyst at eThekweni Metropolitan Municipality, based in the Office of Strategic Management responsible for municipal-wide strategy development. He has more than 10 years' experience in public sector policy development roles including Deputy Director, in the Department of Water and Sanitation, where he was responsible for Policy Research, Monitoring and Evaluation. His research interests include policy development, strategic planning, performance management and public sector governance.

sibusiso.lungisani@gmail.com;

<https://orcid.org/0000-0002-2575-0962>