Contributors

Dr. David Bishau is the Director of the Institute of Theology and Religious Studies at Africa University. He is a holder of a Doctor of Philosophy Degree in Biblical Studies, Master of Arts in Religious Studies, Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Religious Studies and a Diploma in Religious Studies all from the University of Zimbabwe. He also holds a Diploma in Pastoral Ministries from the United Methodist Zimbabwe East Conference Course of Study. Rev. Dr. David Bishau is an academic and an Ordained Minister in full connection in the United Methodist Church. His specialization is in Biblical Studies including Biblical Languages. However, he has carried out inter-disciplinary research and has published articles in refereed journals and books in Family and Religious Studies and other areas Religion and the natural environment as well as conflict management. tarebishau@gmail.com; https://orcid.org/0000-0003-2245-4911

Tabitha Bishau is a senior lecturer at the Mutare Teachers College and an adjunct lecturer at Africa University teaching Introduction to the Study of Religion and African Traditional Religion. She is a holder of a Master of Arts in Religious Studies, Bachelor of Arts (Hons) in Religious Studies and a Diploma in Religious Studies, all with the University of Zimbabwe. She is studying for a doctoral degree with the Zimbabwe Open University. bishaut@gmail.com

Advice Chimbarange is a Lecturer at the University of Zimbabwe, researcher, editor, Academic and Professional Communication Consultant. He holds a PhD in Applied Linguistics (UNISA), Masters in Language for Specific Purposes (UZ) and a BA in English and Communication (ZOU).
achimbarange@arts.uz.ac.zw; and addie.chims@gmail.com

Margret Chinyadza is a Part-time Lecturer at Africa University teaching Church History. She holds a Master of Arts in Religious Studies (Africa University, Zimbabwe), a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) with Education degree (Africa University, Zimbabwe) and a Diploma in Education (Hillside Teacher's College, Zimbabwe). chinyadzam@africau.edu

Ezra Chitando is a Professor in History and Phenomenology of Religion at the University of Zimbabwe, and Theology Consultant on HIV and AIDS for the World Council of Churches. chitsa21@yahoo.com; https://orcid.org/0000-0003-2493-8151

Caroline Dimingu is Lecturer in the Department of Humanities and Social Science at Zimbabwe Ezekiel Guti University. She holds a Master of Arts in Religious Studies (UZ, 2013), BA Hons in Religious Studies (UZ, 2011) and a Postgraduate Diploma in Education (LSU, 2015). Her Research Area is Religion, Gender and Sustainable Development. carolinedimingu@yahoo.com

Wellington Gadzikwa (PhD) is a Senior Lecturer, in Journalism and Media Stu-dies at the University of Zimbabwe, Harare. His research and publication interests are in journalism standards and practices, media framing, tabloids and tabloidization. wmgadzikwa@yahoo.com; and wmgadzikwa@gmail.com

Dr. Joyline Gwara is in the Department of Philosophy, Ethics and Religion, at the University of Zimbabwe, Harare. joyandjay71@gmail.com; https://orcid.org/0000-0003-2245-1171

Elias G. Konyana (PhD) is a Senior Lecturer and Chairperson of the Department of Philosophy and Religious Studies at Great Zimbabwe Univer-sity. He teaches Logic, Ethics, Philosophy of Religion and Philosophy of Education at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels. Dr. Konyana's research interests are in Ethical Philosophy, unpacking ethical issues from law, culture, religion and development. To date, Dr. Konyana has published several book chapters and journal articles as well as presenting papers at regional and international conferences on the link between ethics, culture and the law. He is also a non-executive member of CODESRIA and ACLARS. konyanaeg@gmail.com

Dr. Nhlanhla Landa is a Senior Lecturer at the University of Fort Hare in South Africa. His research interests include multilingualism, language and politics, higher education reform, gender justice, as well as onomastics. He has published vastly on these and other Sociolinguistic subjects in the past few years. Dr Landa teaches courses in Applied Linguistics within the Faculty of Social Sciences and Humanities. nlanda@ufh.ac.za; https://orcid.org/0000-0002-0037-0218

Vincent Mabvurira is an Associate Professor of social work in the School of Psychosocial Health (Lifestyle Diseases Research Entity) at North-West University. He holds a PhD in social work from University of Limpopo and a Master of Social Work degree from the University of Zimbabwe. His research focus is on indigenous knowledge systems, child welfare, climate change and religion spirituality and social work. vinmabvurira@gmail.com; https://orcid.org/0000-0003-0960-230X

Prof. Francis Machingura is an Associate Professor (Biblical Studies) at the University of Zimbabwe, Curriculum and Arts Education Department, Faculty of Education. He is currently the Acting Director of University of Zimbabwe Post-Graduate Centre. He is a specialist in Biblical Studies. His areas of special interest are on the: Interaction of the Bible and Gender, Bible and Politics, Bible and Health, Bible and Inclusivity, Bible and Sexuality, Music and Pentecostal Christianity in Africa. He has published books, several articles and book chapters. fmachingura@yahoo.com; https://orcid.org/0000-0002-5161-5369

Newturn Maidza is a lecturer in Academic and Professional Communication Skills at the University of Zimbabwe. He holds a Bachelor of Arts Honours Degree in English, a Master of Arts (Applied Linguistics) Degree, a Graduate Certificate in Education (all from the University of Zimbabwe). In addition, he has a Diploma in Marketing from the Southern Africa Institute of Marketing. maidzaweshungu@gmail.com

Prof. Peter Maiko Mageto is the Deputy Vice Chancellor of Africa University. He is a holder of a PhD specializing in Ethics, a Master of Theological Studies (both from Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary in Illinois, USA) and a Bachelor of Divinity degree. Professor Peter Maiko has published three books and has many journal publications in reputable publications in a number of thematic areas including Theology, Education, Peace, and Reconciliation. magetop@africau.edu

Prof. Jabulani Calvin Makhubele holds a Doctoral degree from the North West University and a Master's degree in Social Work (cum laude) from the University of the North. He is currently a researcher, professor in the Department of Social Work at the University of Limpopo. Professor Makhubele has extensive research, and supervision experience as well as significant experience in managing research projects. Prof Makhubele has supervised more than 10 doctoral students and more than 30 master's students and his publiccations span more than 50 in accredited and refereed journals.
Jabulani.Makhubele@ul.ac.za; https://orcid.org/0000-0002-0192-573X

Itai Offat Manyanhaire is a holder of a Master of Arts in Environmental Policy and Planning (MEPP) and Bachelor of Science Honours in Geography from the University of Zimbabwe and a Bachelor of Science Education from Instituto Superior Pedagogico Enrique José Varona-Cuba. A Senior Lecturer in Geography and Environmental Studies in the Faculty of Science at the Zimbabwe Open University. He has extensive research and publication experience. offatmanyanhaire@gmail.com or, offatmanya@yahoo.com;manyanhaireo@zou.ac.zw

Dr Gift Masengwe is a graduate of the University of South Africa in the School of Philosophy, Systematic and Practical Theology. He is a researcher in contemporary studies and a President of the Church of Christ in South Africa. He has published on environmental ethics, religion and politics, human health (HIV and AIDS and disability) and gender in the field of religion and theology. masengweg@gmail.com;
https://orcid.org/0000-0003-1222-9067

J.D. McClymont is a Senior Lecturer in the Department of Philosophy, Ethics and Religion at the University of Zimbabwe. He has a Doctorate in Theology from UNISA and an MPhil in Classics from the University of Zimbabwe, and has lectured in Classical Philosophy, Classical Mythology, Greek and Latin. He is interested in philosophy and religion and has published an article on the character of Circe in the Odyssey for Akroterion, and on Aristotle's views on religion for Acta Classica, as well as having published book chapters on tradition and objectivity and also on misconceptions concerning culture in publications issued by the Council of Research in Values and Philosophy.
marmack@africaonline.co.zw

Henerieta Mgovo is a New Testament Studies lecturer in the Department of Philosophy and Religious Studies at Great Zimbabwe University. She holds a Postgraduate Diploma in Education (ZEGU, 2017); Master of Arts in Religious Studies (UZ, 2011); a BA Hons in Religious Studies (UZ, 2008); and a Diploma in Religious Studies (UZ, 2004). Her area of research interest is Religion, Gender and Political Transformation. She is currently studying for a Ph.D. in New Testament Studies with the University of Zimbabwe.
henerietamgovo@yahoo.com

Milcah Mudewairi is a holder of a Diploma in Religious Studies (UZ), BA Hon (UZ), PGDE (ZOU) and MA (UZ). She is currently a Lecturer in Old Testament Studies at the Zimbabwe Ezekiel Guti University (ZEGU) and PhD student with the University of Pretoria. Area of specialisation: Religion and Environment. samude35@gmail.com; https://orcid.org/0000-0003-4968-0206

Dr. Josephat Mutangadura holds a Bachelor of Arts, honour's degree in Philosophy, Classics and Religious Studies obtained in 1999 from the University of Zimbabwe. In 2002, he graduated with a Master of Arts Degree in Language for Specific Purposes from the same University, majoring in Language, Media, and Advertising. He completed his 1st Doctoral degree in October 2016 with Tshwane University of Technology's Department of Applied Languages. His 2nd PhD was obtained with the University of South Africa in September 2020 in Communication Science. He has published several articles and book chapters in Language, Media, and Visual Communication, which happens to be area of his research interest. His university teaching experience spans over 16 years across 6 universities in Zimbabwe and South Africa. He assisted in the Teaching of Intensive English and English as a Second Language to students of French and Portuguese background at Africa University for more than 8 years. josemuta@gmail.com or, mutangaduraj@tut.ac.za; https://orcid.org/0000-0003-4197-1041

Tenson Mabhuya Muyambo is a holder of Doctor of Philosophy (Gender and Religion) in the Department of Teacher Development at Great Zimbabwe University in Masvingo, Zimbabwe. He is an alumni of University of KwaZulu Natal, South Africa. His research and publication interests include Indigenous Knowledge Systems, Religion, Identity, Education and Gender.
tmuyambo@gzu.ac.zw; https://orcid.org/0000-0001-6765-5034

Dr. Canisius Mwandayi is currently a senior lecturer in the Department of Religious Studies, Midlands State University, Zimbabwe. He is also an Academic Associate/ Research Fellow at the Re-search Institute for Theology and Religion (RITR) in the College of Human Sciences, University of South Africa (UNISA). His research interests include: Inculturation, Death and after-life, Cultural Hermeneutics & Old Testament Interpretation. canisiusm@gmail.com or mwandayic@staff.msu.ac.zw

Nomatter Sande holds a PhD in Religion and Social Transformation (UKZN). He is an African Pentecostal Practical Theologian. His research interests include African diaspora, social transformation and engagement, disability and gender issues. He is affiliated to Apostolic Faith Mission International Ministries UK (AFMIM UK). pastornomsande@yahoo.com; https://orcid.org/0000-0002-4177-8391

Dr. Tabona Shoko is full-time permanent lecturer in the Department of Religious Studies, Classics and Philosophy at the University of Zimbabwe (UZ), Harare since 1st January 1993. He holds a D. Phil (1994), M.A. (1988) and BA Dual Hons. shokotab@yahoo.com; https://orcid.org/0000-0002-0093-4570

Fairchild Siyawamwaya, is a holder of an Honours degree in Theology and Religious Studies (Zimbabwe Ezekiel Guti University) and a Master of Arts in Religious Studies (University of Zimbabwe). His research interest is in the area of Bible and Social justice issues. Currently, he is a lecture at Zimbabwe Ezekiel Guti University (ZEGU) in the department of Humanities, Education and Social Sciences. His area of Specialization is the Old Testament and Hebrew. fsiyawamwaya@zegu.ac.zw,cell

Beatrice Taringa is a coordinator and lecturer in Research Methods and Indigenous Languages at Belvedere Technical Teachers' College in the Department of Professional Studies. She is a holder of a PhD from the University of Zimbabwe, MEd, BEd and a DipEd Curriculum and Arts Education from the University of Zimbabwe. taringabeatrice@gmail.com

Dr. Sindiso Zhou teaches Applied Linguistics in the Department of English in the Faculty of Social Sciences and Humanities at the University of Fort Hare in South Africa. She does research in the fields of language contact, language pedagogy, multilingualism, multilingual writing, translanguaging, higher education, onomastics, and interconnections of discourses of gender and communication in society. szhou@ufh.ac.za; https://orcid.org/0000-0002-4267-8456